“Calling for Justice, Mercy, and Faithfulness” is a continuation of the study which began last spring. This session will begin the study in the Book of Isaiah. The study covers the 8th century prophets who warned that God’s people were in grave danger because they had neglected what genuine commitment to God meant and what the covenant community was supposed to be like - a community of neighbors who treated one another with fairness and mercy.

Ruth's journey of unbearable loss, redeeming love, and divine legacy comes alive in Kelly Minter's Ruth: Loss, Love & Legacy. This Bible study delves into the noble character of Ruth, her unique relationship with her mother-in-law Naomi, and her blossoming love with Boaz. If you've ever been devastated by loss, struggled as a stranger, longed to be loved, or wept along the way, you'll find a place with Ruth.

Nurturing the Soul toward Christlikeness Bible Study...Spiritual growth is not automatic. It must be intentional. Through Bible studies from various passages in the Bible, Pastor Rick hopes to help others know how to experience actual, positive change in their lives so they can be more like Christ. Each study will "stand alone," so that whoever comes can (hopefully) benefit from the study.
